Presented by the SENIOR CLASS of HOLSTEIN COMMUNITY SCHOOL
HOLSTEIN, IOWA
VOLUME 42

Dedication

To our Mothers and Fathers—whose interests have been in the improvement of our lives—whose love and encouragement have been inspirational—and whose never ending sacrifices have made possible these four years of high school—we respectfully dedicate “The Moo” of 1959,

The Class of 1959

MAJORETTES: Faye Janssen, Catherine Lingle, Mary Ina Hueschen, Camilla Hanson, Nancy Kolb, Sue Blackmer.

The Holstein High School Band, under the capable direction of Mr. Keith Nash, turned in very fine performances this year. The sixty-three members have joined together to turn in good performances at the annual Christmas Program, the "Pops" Concert, and the Spring Concert. The band was privileged to have an exchange concert with the Denison High School Band this year. The Denison Band played a very fine concert for the entire student body, but because of a snow storm the Holstein Band was unable to play a return concert at Denison.

The marching band marched at all the home football games and took band trips to Band Day at Ames and the annual Pop Corn Day at Ida Grove.

The band officers that were elected early this fall are the following Seniors: President, Mary Knuth; Vice-President, Julie Ewoldt; Secretary-Treasurer, Maxine Vohs.

The Holstein Black Pirates of 1958 finished the season as the third undefeated Holstein team in four years. The Pirates started the season with a 20 to 6 revenge victory over a strong Alta team. Moville was the toughest early season rival but the Pirates won a hard fought 19 to 6 victory. Onawa fell victim by a 39 to 6 score, and Logan was swamped 49 to 13.

The Ida Grove game was the highlight of the season. The Pirates came from behind to upset the favored Hawks 12 to 7. The Pirates overpowered their homecoming rival, Correctionville, by a score of 58 to 6. Kingsley was the second biggest game of the year and again Holstein had to come from behind to win 27 to 13. The Marcus game was easily won 48 to 0, and in the final game of the season the Pirates tromped Odebolt 47 to 7.

At the season's end the Pirates were ranked seventh in Northwest Iowa in a poll conducted by the Sioux City Journal-Tribune, and fourth in Class II in Iowa by the Des Moines Register.

* Maple Valley Tourney

 Sectional Tourney

The Holstein Black Pirates completed a very successful season, ending up with a record of fifteen wins against only four losses. Two of these losses were to the strong Aurelia Bulldogs. They defeated the Pirates in the first game of the season and again in the first round of the Sectional Tournament at Cherokee.

The third loss went to Onawa. They were another strong ball club, probably the best the Pirates played. Onawa showed their strength by staying in tournament play until the finals of the district.

The poorest showing for the Pirates was in the first round of the Maple Valley Tournament when they were upset by Anthon. The Pirates could not hit the basket and managed to score only twenty points the entire ball game.

To offset this showing the Pirates bounced back the very next game and upset the highly favored Quimby five. This was probably the highlight of the season for all the players and the coach as well.

The social life of the school year began on Friday, September 5, 1958. The seniors initiated the freshmen with the boys dressed as babies and the girls as "hoods" or hoodlums. The egg throw, moth ball rolls, and expressions of love for the seniors were just a few of the stunts the freshmen did for the seniors. The paddle contest was won by Mary Hueschen for the girls and Gary Schuett for the boys. They received a "pie-in-the-face."

In the evening the seniors sponsored a dance for the whole high school with the freshmen as the guests of honor. Again the "freshies" entertained for the seniors with the seniors' favorite stunts.

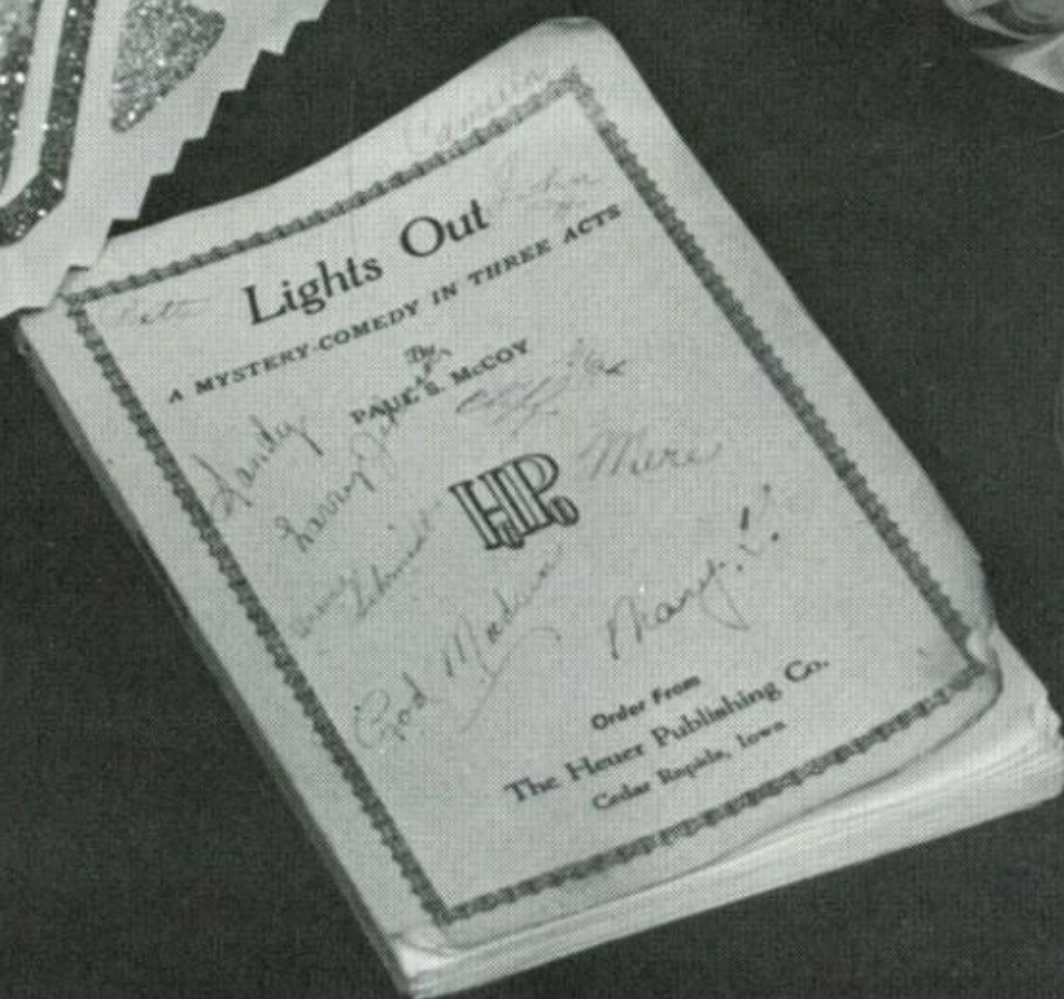

Although the freshmen had dreaded their initiation, the whole high school had a good time at the first big social event of the new year.

Homecoming Royalty

Queen Bonnie Christiansen and King Bob Kraai

Thursday evening, October 16, Bob Kraai and Bonnie Christiansen were named King and Queen of the annual homecoming festivities. They were crowned in the impressive ceremony following the variety show. The Royalty was again presented during the half-time activities of the Holstein-Correctionville game.

The coronation followed the very well presented variety show, "Flying High." The mixed chorus, holding lighted candles, formed the entrance for the Royalty, giving an impressive effect. Loretta Clausen and Dean Gerber, second attendants to the Queen and King, were first to enter. Next were Julie Ewoldt and John Kolb, first attendants. They were followed by Queen Bonnie and King Bob, who preceded the crown bearers, Julie Hesel and Randall Dreeszen.

The group advanced to the beautifully decorated stage and their reign began. Queen Bonnie and King Bob were crowned by Mr. Christie, superintendent of Holstein schools. The attendants were crowned by Mr. Hompland, principal of Holstein High School. After the ceremony the group was serenaded by the Holstein Dance Band.

Queen Bonnie, Julie and Loretta wore corsages of red, white and pink carnations, respectively.

In the glory of their reign, the Royalty walked through the aisle to the strains of "Holstein's Royalty" sung by the Mixed Chorus as they lighted the way.

On Friday at 3:30 p.m. there was a pep rally with Bernie Saggau as the speaker. By the time the program was finished the Black Pirates of Holstein were ready to sink the Correctionville Warriors.

The Pirates celebrated homecoming night with a 58 to 6 gridiron victory over an outmanned, but willing, Warrior eleven Friday evening. It was the sixth win of the season without a loss and our second conference win. Before the game the Black Pirates ranked fourth in Class II in the latest published Des Moines Register football poll. The Pirates kept up the good work for at the half the score was 33 to 0 in Holstein's favor.

During the half-time activities the Royalty was again presented to the spectators. Their attire for the evening was dress suits for the girls with their corsages and football uniforms for all the boys, very unlike the formals the girls wore and the suits the boys wore Thursday evening.

After the football game the cheerleaders sponsored a dance in the Legion hall, adding a final highlight to the wonderful Homecoming of 1958.

On November 11, the junior class presented the play, "The Groom Said No!", by Ruth and Nathan Hale. This is the story of a young man, Steve Cameron, who returned from the army to find his family planning his marriage to the girl he left behind. Since he no longer loves her, he is at his wit's end trying to get out of this marriage.

He has fallen in love with one of the nurses, Lieut. Anderson, whom he knew while recuperating in the hospital. To stall for time he pretends to have a relapse and says that he must return to the hospital. Not wanting this they arrange to have his nurse come and take care of him.

Clara, the girl left behind, is suspicious of the nurse from the minute she arrives. In the conflict for Steve's affection the two girls were on an even basis but Lieut. Anderson finally wins out.

Some of the other characters who added interest to the play were Patty and Virgie Cameron, Willie Williams, Mrs. Inez Cameron, Mr. Will Cameron, Mary Alice Smith, Mrs. Sorenson and Ed Smith.

On April 7, 1959, the Senior Class presented the play, "Lights Out," by Paul S. McCoy. It was the story of the Harwood family trying to sell their mansion. Agnes Harwood invites some prospective buyers in for a house party and then strange things start happening. Lights going out, voices in the dark, and disappearing people made the play most exciting.

Junior-Senior Prom--1959

On Monday evening, April 20, 1959, the proud juniors and the somewhat sentimental seniors enjoyed an evening in the atmosphere of a "Southern Plantation," as they and the invited guests enjoyed the social highlight of the school year—the Junior-Senior Prom.

The music of Bob Conley's Combo and the Southern atmosphere made the evening an unforgettable experience.

The honored freshmen who were dressed as Negro maids and servants were Sue Blackmer, Mary Jo DeWit, Ronda Clausen, Sandra Baumann, Mike Brosamle, Paul Striepe, John Johannsen, and Billy Ericksen.

The Southern atmosphere was created by rows of cotton bushes, a colored surrey, a paddle wheel, and two southern-furnished sitting rooms.

During intermission Dean Gerber, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gerber, and Bonnie Christiansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christiansen, were crowned King and Queen of the 1959 Prom.

The dancing came to an end at 12:30 a.m. and everyone left, awed by the past festivities.

The Seniors would like to thank the juniors for the effort, time, and worry put into "Southern Plantation."

Senior Skip Day

On Monday, May 18, 1959, twenty-nine seniors left for Omaha at 6:00 a. m. It took approximately three hours to reach their destination. Their first stop was the Union Pacific Museum. Here they saw many relics and other articles of interest that helped tell the story of the history of the railroad.

Their next stop was the Swift Packing Plant. They watched the complete process of preparing meat for the market.

After lunch the class journeyed to Boys' Town. The rainy weather took some of the fun out of this stop. Some of the more interesting things were the Oscar won by Spencer Tracy when he played the part of Father Flanagan in the movie Boys' Town, the 600 pound globe of stamps, and the interesting trades the boys can learn.

KMTV was the final stop. A lady gave us a guided tour of the studio and explained the mechanisms of television. After this we had free time to shop until 5:00 p. m.

We returned home through Sioux City and had supper at the Biltmore. Our day of enjoyment and fun ended at approximately 10:00 p.m.

We would like to express our thank you to all those who gave their wholehearted support to this year's annual, especially the business men for their aid. Mr. Gerber and Mr. Hompland, the senior class sponsors and Moo advisors, are worthy of praise for their hard work and enduring patience. Because of this loyal support we are able to present to you this, our Moo of 1959.
